

As per the Policy on Research Degrees (see section 7), extensions are granted only in exceptional circumstances, namely, where a postgraduate researcher's (PGR's) work has been hampered by documented exceptional medical or personal or, in the case of part-time PGRs, employment reasons. The magnitude of the research task, or failure to perceive or act upon the magnitude of the research

Are you an overseas PGR on a course requiring ATAS clearance?

Yes

I confirm that I have considered the reason for this extension and I recommend the extension for the reasons stated above:
