The OfS Regulatory Advice 16: Reportable Events guidance can be read in full: here

The regulatory framework defines a reportable event as:

A reportable event is any event or matter that, in the reasonable judgement of the OfS, negatively affects or could negatively affect:

- a. The provider's eligibility for registration with the OfS.
- b. The provider's ability to comply with its conditions of registration.
- c. The provider's eligibility for degree awarding powers, or its ability to comply with the criteria for degree awarding powers.

3) A change in the provider's business model, such as a move to focus on further instead of higher education.

4) Loss, including suspension, of the provider's student sponsor licence.

c) Matters relating to the quality and standards of a provider's higher education course, including but not limited to:

1) A notification to the provider of an investigation by an awarding organisation or awarding body or by a professional, regulatory or statutory body

2) A notification to the provider that its awarding organisation or awarding body is to withdraw from the arrangement, where this is not a routine consequence of a planned contract review.

d) Matters relating to student and consumer protection, including but not limited to:
